

Social Violence in Nigeria

The Nigeria Social Violence Project is a collaborative effort in the African Studies Program at Johns Hopkins SAIS to track and analyze social violence in Nigeria from 1998 to the present.

- Figures and Summaries of Data
- Social Violence Data Table
- Method, Coding and Classification

Archives
February 2014

Figure 1: Fatalities in Nigeria by Category, 1998-2014

Recent Publications:

“Down, Not Out: How to Fight Back Against Boko Haram’s Newest Strategy”

Foreign Affairs, June 18, 2015

“One Chart Shows Why the World Should Care About Boko Haram”

World.Mic, January 13, 2015

“The Boko Haram Insurgency, by the Numbers”

Washington Post, October 6, 2014

4 thoughts on “Social Violence in Nigeria”

Pingback: The Boko Haram insurgency, by the numbers - The Washington Post

Pingback: Report: 11,000 Dead in Boko Haram Insurgency | CAMEROON DAILY JOURNAL

Pingback: TSG IntelBrief: Boko Haram Takes, Holds Territory | The Soufan Group

Pingback: Have over 13,000 people been killed in Nigeria’s insurgency? | African Policy

Comments are closed.

Copyright © 2016 Connect SAIS Africa. All Rights Reserved.

TI